As much as it is a declaration with an influence, it is also a gesture of good will and patriotism for the Lebanon we know. Number one and number 10,452 will not be for sale, they will be auctioned once all necklaces are sold and the profits gained will go straight to Lebanese children in need.

Being the altruistic person that she is, for every single piece of jewelry sold, part of the proceeds will be donated to Lebanese charity organizations and NGOs caring for children education. In fact Hala Tayah works as

Necklace "keep Lebanon close to your heart"® Pink gold with diamonds set on a leather cord with the message hanging on the side

Cuffing for men "keep Lebanon close to your heart"® 18k yellow gold existent in white or pink gold and can be set with diamonds
