A beautiful woman, with very long and brown hair, appearing to be in her thirties, and with a surrounding positive aura around her, walked into Paul in Gemayze wearing a designer black dress and one of the latest Must have Bags of the season. Needless to say, she made quite an impression. Heads turned, people looked, and around her neck was shining a beautiful unusual sparkling piece of jewelry. Hala Tayah is just that. An active charismatic woman with a highly contagious positive attitude towards her life and towards her country. Of all the women, she possesses a most inviting personality and a most attractive character. Enthusiastic, passionate about her life, her family and her career, she is certainly about to make a change in HER world.

"Keep Lebanon Close to Your Heart"

This is the message she wants to send. This is the message she wants to tell, with class and beauty, to the politicians and to the Lebanese people. She wants to remind them, that in order to go forward and to achieve what's best for Lebanon, the Lebanese need to think of their country before anything else. That is the concept of her newest creation, which was widely applauded at the launch event that took place at the Sursock Palace in Beirut.
